

Updated Program: Current Trends in Papuan Linguistics

10-11 Dec 2019 Paris (France)

Tuesday, 10th of December
09:45 – 10:00	Welcome
10:00 – 11:00	Languages as passing amalgamations. Linguistic field methods, comparative linguistics and language documentation among Greater Awyu clans Lourens De Vries
11:00 – 12:00	Variationist studies in southern New Guinea Eri Kashima, Kate L Lindsey, Dineke Schokkin, Katherine Anne Strong
12:00 – 13:00	Multilingual language ecologies in Southern New Guinea: a comparison of two villages Christian Döhler
13:00 – 14:30	Lunch
14:30 – 15:30	A genetic perspective on the complex settlement of the Melanesian world Nicolas Brucato
15:30 – 16:30	Things your classics master never told you: a borrowing from Trans New Guinea languages into Latin Roger Blench
16:30 – 17:00	Srengé ideophones José Antonio Jódar Sánchez

Wednesday, 11th of December
10:00 – 11:00	Acquiring the phonology of Yéfi Dnye (Rossel Island, PNG) Marisa Casillas
11:00 – 12:00	Demonstratives in topic-related functions Anna Margetts
12:00 – 14:00	Lunch
14:00 – 14:30	Nominal classification in numeral constructions in West Papua Katherine Walker
14:30 – 15:30	Reapproaching evidentiality in the New Guinea Highlands from a diachronic perspective informed by evidence from Himalayan languages Marius Zemp
15:30 – 16:30	Coverb constructions in Papua – how much ‘lexicon’, how much ‘grammar’? Sonja Riesberg